Of the 1,600,000 Jewish children who lived in Europe before World War II, only 100,000 survived the Holocaust. Most were hidden children shuttered away in attics, cellars, convents or in villages or farms. Maud Dahme was among those who were hidden and survived.

A gripping tale of survival, The Hidden Child tells the story of a six-year-old girl Maude Dahme and her 4 year old sister Rita, whose family had been warned of the deportations to the camps. The girls were separated from their parents and hidden for three years in Oldebroek, Holland with two different families, dodging bullets, lying for survival, and relying on the compassion of strangers.

Today, Dahme devotes her life to Holocaust education and advancing mutual respect and understanding.

The Hidden Child is the story of Holocaust survivor Maud Dahme who survived because of the decency and courage of complete strangers. The film captures the emotional reunion with one of her rescuers.
